

Leadership Opportunities on the Resident Physician Council Board

The following are descriptions of RPC Board appointed positions and activities.

Resident Physician Council Board Committee – Appointments

The Resident Physician Council Board has one functional committee: the nominating committee.

Nominating Committee – Two positions

- Ensures the integrity of the elections process. Selects nominees from among suggested candidates for the positions of president, vice president, and secretary.
- The Nominating Committee consists of two members of the RPC at large and the immediate past president, serving as Chair, each of whom shall serve a one-year term. The RPC Nominating Committee should consist of residents from different programs. All nominating committee members must be PGY3, with the exception of the Immediate Past-President who may be PGY4.

AAPM&R Committee Appointments

AAPM&R has dedicated positions for resident members to serve on the three strategic coordinating committees (Membership, Medical Education and Quality Practice, Policy, and Research). RPC members on AAPM&R committees are responsible and accountable for advancing committee objectives and appropriately serving the resident community and field as a whole.

AAPM&R Membership Committee – Two positions

Committee Objectives/Charges:

1. Evaluate current member retention and recruitment efforts.
2. Develop and implement new and innovative ways to recruit and retain members focusing on young physiatrists.
  - a. Developing and implementing strategies and activities to increase and retain resident membership in the Academy and assure residents see the value of transitioning to full Academy membership.
3. Monitor membership statistics and trends.
4. Identify membership needs of young members and develop mechanisms to assist them to advance into leadership roles.

AAPM&R Medical Education Committee (MEC) – Two positions

Committee Objectives/Charges:

1. Identify educational needs for all Academy members and design, evaluate, budget, revise and implement educational meetings, publications and products to meet those needs.
  - a. Provide the products and services for residents and young members to assist them in transitioning from a Board exam studying approach to MOC life-long learning preparedness.
2. Identify emerging trends and develop recommendations with proposed business plans for new products and future direction of existing products.
3. Monitor ACCME criteria, standards, and policies; guarantee AAPM&R adherence to policies and practices.
4. Oversee all MEC working committees to ensure objectives and charges are being addressed.
5. Through its working committees, produce, approve, retain, and distribute educational materials to members.
6. Develop other educational courses as needed.
7. Develop a process to prospectively assess AA offerings for repurposing on Academe or in other formats.

AAPM&R Quality Practice, Policy, and Research (QPPR) – Two position

Committee Objectives/Charges:

1. Develop and manage integrated strategic plan and resource allocation to advance the practice, policy and research priorities of the Academy.

2. Coordinate activities and develop synergies between committees.
3. Prioritize strategies and deliverables. Develop business plans to allocate required resources to assure measurable success.
4. Communicate priorities, progress and results to Board of Governors and membership.

Other Resident Leadership Appointments

Residency program liaison position – One position

- Identify a list of all Chief Residents and facilitate communication between the RPC Board and the residency programs throughout the country
- Organize and coordinate Chief Resident Meeting at Annual Assembly

Delegates/Liaisons to non-AAPM&R organizations

AAPM&R-RPC Delegate to AMA Resident and Fellow Section – One position, two year appointment

- Introduces resolutions to the Resident & Fellow Section, then to the AMA House of Delegates on behalf of the AAPM&R-RPC. Supports AAPM&R AMA Delegate during the AMA Interim and Annual Meetings.
- Serves as one of the PM&R Alternate Delegates at the AMA House of Delegates.
- The Delegate must be a current AMA member in good standing
- The Delegate must be a PGY1 or PGY2 at the time of appointment.
- Keeps the AAPM&R-RPC informed of the current topics of interest and upcoming changes in AMA policy.

If you have questions regarding eligibility or requirements of these positions, please contact AAPM&R Customer Service at 847-737-6000 or memberservices@aapmr.org.